

WORLD SUMMIT ON INTERNET AND MULTIMEDIA (WSIM)

World Summit on Internet and Multimedia (WSIM) is a global event on multimedia and internet, hosted by International Federation of Multimedia Associations (FIAM/IFMA).

The WSIM focuses on innovative multimedia, creative content and digital media industry. The topics include: 3D/4D animation and multimedia software, wireless multimedia and mobile contents, electronic game and digital entertainment, digital film and internet TV, new media arts and digital culture, digital media education and e-learning, digital cities, e-government, digital lifestyle and e-health, digital business and internet services, digital earth, green electronic, digital media industrial sustainable development, etc. The activities include forums, workshops, matchmaking meetings, roundtable meetings, business dialogs, projects promoting, exhibitions, etc.

The speakers are from international senior representatives and experts of UN agencies, governmental organizations, industrial and professional associations, chambers of commerce, financial institutions, research and educational institutes, manufactures, traders and service providers in fields of multimedia, internet and digital media industry. The guests and participants are from North America, Latin America-Caribbean, Europe, Asia-Pacific and Africa.

The 1st Summit was held in Montréal (Canada), the 2nd in Abu Dhabi (U.A.E.), the 3rd in Montreux (Switzerland), the 4th in Beijing (China), the 5th in Shenyang (China). The 6th will be held in Shenyang (China).